

Job posting: Beach Volleyball National Team Coach

The Israel Volleyball Association is looking to recruit a beachvolleyball coach to join their team of coaches for its national teams.

Applications are invited from candidates who can demonstrate the following range of skills and behaviors.

Essential Requirements

- A coaching diploma (or equivalent)
- Have experience coaching at a high-performance level in beach volleyball for at least 5 years
- Work well in a team environment. Team players and team leaders wanted.
- High organizational skills (Office, Staff, personal and players meetings)
- Social and communicative competence
- Very good knowledge of English. Hebrew knowledge will take as advantage.
- Desire to learn and develop as a coach and training team member

Desirable Requirements

- Several years of experience in international (beach) volleyball as a coach.
- Have experience working in a national team beachvolleyball system.

Areas of responsibility

- Work closely and in coordination with the Head Coach of the system
- Planning and executing training for the senior/youth national team players, taking into account different interfaces that affect the players such as the army and school.
- Elevate Israel's current and future top beach volleyball teams to continental and global further success.
- Attend/Run training camps for the national teams nationally and internationally when needed in Israel or abroad.
- Supervision of the respective national teams at official competitions (Beach Pro Tour, European and World Championships) in Israel or abroad.
- Screen/Monitor future talent.
- Regular participation in further education and training
- Close cooperation with all national team coaches of the Israel Volleyball Association

Employment type

Full-time employment at the Israel Volleyball Association. We offer a base salary of international standard based on qualifications and experience.

Interested parties send their detailed application including CV to dvir@iva.org.il by December 15th. Interviews will follow with selected candidates.